

Pappas Telecasting
Companies'
'donation' of $325,000 in airtime
to Republican candidates in certain areas is yet another example of a
powerful media group
abusing its privileged access to the public airwaves.

Localism is not
served when a
corporate
headquarters decides
to provide one side
in local elections a
louder voice than others. During
election season,
local audiences
should be offered
genuine debate --
not disingenuous
offers to "purchase"
an equal amount of
response time.

Pappas uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Pappas'
actions are legally
questionable and
cast doubt on whether Pappas truly
intends to serve the public interest.
Their actions show
why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not
weaken them.
Further, they show
why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than just a
returned postcard.
Thank you.
